

FSO 02/20/2017 meeting
DRAFT

Referendum panel presentation 6:30-7:30

In attendance: Maggie Madden, Jen Shimon, Ms. Kristin Dillahunt, Jessica Pitre, Rebecca Meisegeier, Tracey Jager, Casey Didier, Steve Nauta, Jo Maehl, Carrie Walls, Jeff Krummel, Abby Krummel, Dr. Craig Gunderson, Clar La Duke

Meeting called to order at 7:31 p.m.

Ms. Meisegeier's/Dr. Gunderson's Principal's Report:

- Starting in March to discuss master schedule and staffing
- Buddy Breakfast: Lisa Rau, Christy Kleckner, Amy Couture (chairs) did a beautiful job! approx 400 people in attendance!
- Ms. Rau sought authors for World Read Aloud Day; authors donated their time to Skype with KES kids
- Grafton Media Specialists gearing up for Dr Seuss Week
- Friday, Feb 24th Student Council 1st Annual Winter Fest
- Report cards are coming up; March 9th end of 2nd trimester; Friday, March 17th report cards sent home and available online
- Teachers assessing learning via student data sources
- Movement from targeted Title I money for math intervention; KES approached to apply for school-wide title, can be for reading/math, flexibility for how money is used, three goals to be sure kids are closing achievement gap, based on free and reduced lunch, good chance KES will get it, will start 2017-2018 school year
- Student survey in grades 4&5

Ms. Dillahunt's Teacher's Report:

- Conferences took place...teachers pleased with attendance
- Buddy Breakfast went really well!
- March is Music in our Schools month!
- G Group performed at Seniors Valentine Party; performing at NewCastle in March
- kindergarten concerts in March
- students and staff have been welcoming to Ms. Meisegeier

Ms. Pitre's Treasurer's Report:

- No outstanding payments or balances
- Not many requests for mini grants (Ms. Dillahunt will send out an email to staff)

New Business:

- New fundraisers (two people have volunteered to research) for next year
- Kennedy Carnival seems to be on track (neither of our chairs were able to be in attendance to comment)
- New chairs stepping forward to take over co-chair with Kelly

Old Business:

- Box Tops competition coming to an end
- FlipSide: totals not in yet

Meeting Adjourned at 8:15 p.m.

Next FSO meeting Monday, March 20th at 6:30pm KES Library